

SOCIAL EVENTS

AFTERNOON PICNIC AT PARK.

Members of the Busy Bee sewing circle had a most enjoyable afternoon and evening yesterday at Long View park. The ladies disposed of some routine matters during a short business meeting in the afternoon and at 6 o'clock entertained their husbands at the basket spread. There were 30 members and friends attending. Games and races made an evening merriment. The next meeting will be for business at the home of Mrs. D. J. Cleland, 414 Tenth street.

LADIES OF CHURCH ENJOY OUTING.

Ladies of the Immanuel Lutheran church yesterday enjoyed their annual outing at the Watch Tower. There were 28 members present and the baskets were opened at 5 o'clock. The next meeting is announced to be held with Mrs. William Krueger, 215 Tenth avenue, on Sept. 6.

SWEDISH CLUB HOLDS PICNIC.

A delightful outing was the annual picnic held yesterday by members of the Swedish club. The affair was given on the Augustana campus where the beauty of the grounds combined with the jovial spirit of the 20 club members present made a happy afternoon. The picnic supper was served at 6 o'clock and the evening hours spent in delightful sociability. The members have planned for a most unique party on August 25, when they will take breakfast at 6 o'clock on the campus. The club proves an enjoyable method of recreation for the teachers from the college faculty who with a few close friends are members of the organization. Several social evenings are being planned for the early winter.

ENDOWMENT FUND MEETING WITH MRS. PIERSON.

A regular meeting of the Augustana Endowment fund society was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. A. F. Pierson, 1223 Seventeenth street, papers and music made the afternoon program. An especially interesting review was read by Mrs. M. M. Sturgeon on manners and customs of Mexico. Mrs. Sturgeon has traveled in Mexico and gave many incidents which she had seen and known of personally. Many of the members were forced to leniency in their views of Mexico by the convincing and charitable arguments of Mrs. Sturgeon. Pictures and souvenirs of the country were passed among the guests for inspection. Mrs. H. W. Cienann gave a group of songs, "Lace" and "June," both by William Lester. Mrs. A. R. Wallin and Miss Nellie Swanson gave the delightful symphony arranged by Mendelssohn for the piano. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. Mrs. Pierson had trimmed the rooms with quantities of garden flowers and the blossoms were used in pretty effect on the serving table.

The hostesses for the next meeting to be held on Sept. 6 are Mrs. Axel Stock and Mrs. John Magnuson, 113 Third street, Moline. The topic for the meeting will be "Home Efficiency," by Mrs. A. A. Milton.

CLUB AT CAMPBELL'S ISLAND.

The ladies of the Royal cinct club went out to Campbell's island yesterday for their annual picnic spread. The members of the club enjoyed some card games during the afternoon hours, when prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. Baker, Miss Mae Blochinger and Mrs. John Betke. The club will meet in two weeks at the Watch Tower.

HIGHLAND HEATH CLUB MEETING.

The Highland Heath club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. L. Frazer, 947 Twenty-fifth street, Moline. The hours were given over to visiting, the members discarding their needles for pleasant sociability. The rooms were very pretty with flowers from the garden, and a large bouquet of golden glow was used on the table where refreshments were served at 5 o'clock. The guests received an invitation from Mrs. John Duncan to attend her birthday party on September 17, when she will entertain a company of other friends also. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. C. Lange, 214 Sixth street, on Sept. 2.

MRS. BECK ENTERTAINS IVY CLUB.

Mrs. Clara C. Beck was a delightful hostess yesterday to members of the Ivy card club, inviting them to the Watch Tower. The afternoon hours were passed with cards, prizes going to Mrs. George Oghe, first; Mrs. Jack Tighe, second; Mrs. Fred Inhof, third; and Mrs. Mose Voss, cut prize. At 5 o'clock luncheon was served in three courses at the inn. In two weeks the members have been invited to Feluvery park, with Mrs. F. Weidenhoft as hostess of the meeting.

ENTERTAINS WEDDING PARTY.

Mrs. A. J. Hill, 629 Thirty-fifth street, last evening entertained attendees at the wedding of her daughter, Miss Elsie Hill, and Gilbert Kolls, which will be solemnized on Aug. 6. Those who were in the party were Miss Hazel Kolls, a sister of the groom; Miss Eda Peters of Davenport and Little Miss Amelia Pier, the ring bearer. Albert Smith and Jay Livesay are also of the wedding party. A course dinner was served the guests and the evening spent socially. Snapdragons, golden glow and greenery were used in decoration of the rooms. The wedding of Miss Hill and Gilbert Kolls will be a pretty evening ceremony at 8 o'clock.

DINNER COMPANY ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCullough of Davenport entertained a company of visiting Knights of Columbus and their ladies Tuesday evening at the Commercial club. The table was set in the ladies' dining-room and was graced with bouquets of Killarney roses. The affair honored two especially distinguished guests, Daniel Colwell of New Haven, Conn., one of the instigators of the movement for the organization, and John C. Cone, third past supreme knight of the order. Following the dinner Mr. Colwell was asked to tell the story of how the order was organized and Mr. Cone told of how the movement was quickly taken up in the west and spread like a prairie fire to the Pacific coast. Other guests of the occasion were: James Finnegan, state deputy of New York, and Mrs. Finnegan; Joseph J. Meyer of Carroll, state deputy of Iowa; Frederick Kuhn, Nashville, past state deputy of Tennessee; Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Powers of Des Moines; John J. Fleming, past state deputy of Iowa, and Mrs. Fleming of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dunn of Mason City; John B. Keefe; John D. Sullivan and John McDermott, past district deputies of Iowa, and Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. McDermott of Des Moines; John M. F. ATTEND PEORIA CLUB PARTY.

The Misses Cosette Jones and Marie Huebottler of Davenport, with their house guests, Miss Helen Vaughn of Wabash, Ind., and Catherine Cree of Wellsburg, Va., the National Park girls who have been much feted and entertained during their week's visit in Davenport, with Mrs. H. L. Huebottler as chaperon, and Harold Bechtel at the wheel, motored to Peoria Tuesday to attend the dance given by the Automobile club of that city, which was quite a social event with the younger set.

DAVENPORT WOMAN'S CLUB PROGRAM.

Davenport Woman's club program for the general meetings of the year has been completed and was accepted yesterday at the meeting of the executive board.

The general program while not complete—the civics and music departments having not as yet decided on the entertainment they will offer respectively—gives a good idea of the work and some of the interesting offerings in prospect for the coming club year.

GENERAL OUTLINE IS AS FOLLOWS:

Oct. 9.—Helen Louise Johnson, formerly chairman of the house economy

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am 16 years of age. Am I old enough to go with fellows?

(2) There is a boy of 21 who would like very much to go with me, but my father won't let him. Do you think it would be wrong to do it anyway?

(3) There is another boy that I love very much, but he has not tried to go with me. How can I win his love?

(4) The first boy is going out of town for a vacation and he wants me to write to him. Should I do it?

(5) My girl friend is only 15 and her father lets her go with boys. Does he do wrong?

DOTTY.

(1) Not yet. You will be old enough in a year or two.

(2) Don't go with a boy unless your father is willing.

(3) A girl who tries to win a boy's love usually fails miserably. Boys like to give their love where it is not sought.

(4) Not unless your father is willing.

(5) I think a girl of 15 is too young to go with boys.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 18 years old and am married. We have no children and my husband and I do not get along. He is always saying things that hurt my feelings very much. When I tell him he only says, "If you don't like it you can leave." Do you think I ought to leave or stay with him and put up with such things?

A FRIEND.

Since you and your husband are not congenial I think you ought to separate until you can decide definitely what to do. If a divorce is necessary it will be far better to have it in the near future than after there are children. I hope a divorce will not be necessary. Separation may prove that although you have not got along very well you are indispensable to each other.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a boy where I work and like him very much. A few weeks ago a new stenographer came to work at the office and now he goes with her. I am sure that he loves me and that if the other girl didn't run after him he would still be going with me. Every time he goes near her desk she looks down and sort of blushes. I wouldn't do anything to act cute for a boy because I don't think it is nice. Do you think the boy will go with me again? What can I do to win back his love?

BETTY.

The boy may in time decide that he likes you better than the other girl. You must not let him see that you care because he goes with her or that you are anxious to have him come back.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in love with a young man who seems to love me. We have gone together for over a year and get to be better friends every time we see each other. Sometimes he seems to like me so well that I think he will ask me to marry him, but he does not. I like him well enough to marry him. What can I do to make him ask me?

ANXIOUS.

Wait until he is ready to ask you. If you try to rush the matter you may spoil things.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Are cucumbers rinses good for whitening the neck and arms?

(2) Should a single girl go with a married woman?

(1) I have heard that cucumbers rinses whiten the skin.

(2) Yes, if she wants to.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When a boy wishes to take two girls to an entertainment, should he tell each girl that he is going to take the other one, too?

It would probably be well to tell each girl that he is going to take the other.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When a boy takes a girl to a picnic, who is supposed to take the lunch?

The girl usually takes the lunch. If nothing is said about it when the boy invites her she should ask him if he would like to have her take the lunch.

Mrs. Eva Swanson accompanied the couple. The bride wore a white dress of crepe de chine and held a bouquet of white flowers. Mrs. Swanson was also attired in white and held flowers. Mr. Hunter is employed in Moline and the new home will be there.

AFTERNOON TEA FOR HONOR GUESTS.

A pretty but very informal gathering was the afternoon tea today at the home of Miss Marjorie Zeuch in Davenport. Miss Zeuch was assisted by Miss Elsie Warnebold. The party honored a bevy of young ladies who have been much feted during the past week of their visit in Davenport. The guests came from the tri-cities and about seventy enjoyed the hours. The decorations were garden flowers of every variety, baskets and vases of summer blossoms being used about the rooms. The honor guests are girls from the National Park seminary at Washington, D. C., and are house guests of friends here. The visitors are Miss Grace Anderson of Chicago, Miss Katherine Cree of Wellsburg, W. Va., Miss Helen Vaughn of Wabash, Ind., and Miss Marian Depree of Holland, Mich.

CONCORDIA MEETING IN CHURCH.

A large crowd enjoyed the combined meeting of the Concordia societies of Rock Island and Davenport last evening, held in the basement of the Immanuel Lutheran church here. P. T. Buszin, a teacher of Chicago, gave a most interesting talk on the art of being sociable. A review on the architecture of ancient Egypt, given by W. C. THE TABLE.

Corned Beef Hash—If it is made according to the following recipe, it will be found to be delicious: Boil a number of potatoes in their jackets. When done turn them into colander and cool; when cold peel and cut into small cubes. Take two cups chopped beef to one cup of potatoes, add one teaspoon celery minced fine and the same of parsley. Mix all together with one-half teaspoon of good stock, or the same quantity of melted butter, or two teaspoons olive oil. Turn mixture into greased baking dish, cover closely and place in moderate oven about 20 minutes. This makes a delicious beef hash.

Left-Over Dish—A good way to use up cold boiled beef and sweet cabbage. Cut cold boiled beef in thin slices, fry until heated through and light brown; keep hot. Have ready some chopped cold boiled cabbage. Fry this in same pan, stirring it well; season well with pepper and very little salt. Put cabbage into a dish and lay the meat around it.

Mock Angel Food Cake—One-half teaspoon salt, one cup granulated sugar, 1 1/4 cups good flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one cup scalded milk, whites of three eggs. Sift sugar, salt, flour and baking powder together four times. Pour cup of scalding milk over above and beat quickly, then add whites of three eggs beaten stiff, folding them carefully into the cake mixture. Add one-half teaspoon of vanilla when folding eggs in. Bake in square cake pan about 30 minutes in moderate oven. Pan should be slightly greased and floured. After it is baked let set in pan for 10 minutes, turn over on a clean towel or paraffin paper and if it does not come out in a short time lay a damp cloth over bottom of pan. Use any white icing.

Baked Apples a New Way—Pare apples and remove core, one to each person. Fill center with chopped raisins, pecan meats, sugar, water and a little cinnamon, mixed. Bake in shallow pan with a little water until light brown. Baste while cooking.

SUMMER DRINKS.

Raspberry Tea—Make strong tea and let stand until cool. Then fill a glass half full and add one heaping teaspoon of cracked ice, one heaping tablespoon of crushed raspberries and one-half teaspoon vanilla. If this does not fill up glass, add more ice.

Delicious Lemonade—Clean lemons thoroughly, then cut in half and squeeze all juice out possible. Take rinds and cut off the little end, then cut up in pieces and put in pan with a little sugar and water. When heated pour into pitcher with lemon juice and fill up with water. It is necessary to keep all seeds out if possible, as they are bitter inside. The heating of the rinds brings out all the oil, which makes the lemonade perfect.
